

LVS Homes Again Serves As Major Sponsor Of Annual Bear on the Square Festival

LVS Homes Inc., a Dahlonega-based home builder, has once again joined the lineup of major sponsors for the 2009 Bear on the Square Mountain Festival, which will be held in Dahlonega Friday through Sunday, April 17-19. For the second consecutive year, LVS Homes, owned by Larry and Vicki Stouffer, will be the Workshop Tent Sponsor for the festival.

As a homebuilder for many years, the environmental interests of LVS' owner, Larry Stouffer have led to his earth friendly construction techniques being employed in his homes the last 10 years. Coupled with EarthCraft Certification standards and solar experience LVS Homes can deliver for its customers state of the art eco-friendly homes with solar features. LVS Homes continues to expand its business into the Solar Photovoltaic marketplace with full service for residential and commercial capabilities. The company's homes are marketed by Vicki Stouffer with Exit Four Seasons Realty. More information about LVS Homes can be found at www.lvshomes.com

The 13th annual Bear on the Square Mountain Festival will be an incredible weekend of music and art held in the foothills of the North Georgia mountains. From Thursday through Sunday, old time and bluegrass music will fill the Historic Public Square in Dahlonega, Ga.. There will be on-stage performances by local, regional, and national musicians on Saturday and Sunday in the MainStage Tent at Hancock Park. A juried artist's marketplace features traditional mountain art and crafts. Extensive music workshops, a Sunday morning Gospel Jam, a Saturday night street dance, a Friday night Live Country Auction, family activities, and of course, food, complete the offerings.
